

Want to try something new?

Animal Doctors International is hiring!

An exciting opportunity has become available for a recently graduated vet to join our brand new clinic in Hanoi. Our clinic is located near the old district and along the shoreline of a large lake in the centre of Hanoi city in Vietnam.

We are seeking a candidate to join our enthusiastic and dynamic team which consists of two vets, four veterinary assistants (qualified from local University) and three receptionists.

Our practice is well equipped with x-ray, ultrasound and in-house bloods. The position would suit a confident and adventurous vet who wishes to develop their career within a progressive and supportive company. The candidate should be medically inclined and be competent with routine soft tissue surgery.

Hanoi is Asia's most atmospheric capital, an energetic city on the move and only a short flight from stunning beaches and mountain trekking.
